

WAS YOUR GREAT - GRANDFATHER A TRAITOR?

There are individuals today who say that anyone who fought for the Confederate States of America in the War Between the States was a war criminal or a traitor. For the sake of “diversity,” these Politically Correct people insist that you condemn your own ancestors and judge the people and symbols of the 1860's by today's standards. In the name of “multiculturalism,” they demand the outlawing of Confederate symbols — including battle flags, town monuments, and even gravestones! The misuse of Confederate symbols by racist groups prompts these people to rewrite history, disregarding the real heritage at stake.

OR WAS HE A HERO?

We are the Sons of Confederate Veterans and we think your Confederate ancestor was a hero. Outmanned, out-gunned, and out-supplied — but never out-fought — Confederate soldiers wrote a proud chapter in this nation's history for independence, toughness, bravery, patriotism, and honor. If you want the symbols of the Confederacy to remain a part of our cultural history, and you are the male descendant of a Confederate soldier, then we invite you to join our cause. The SCV is a non-political heritage organization, not affiliated with any other group, dedicated to the preservation of the reputation of men like Robert E. Lee, Stonewall Jackson— and your great-grandfather.
